

CULTURE AND HEALTH

Professional Competency in the 21st Century

CARNEGIE HOTEL & SPA
1216 West State of Franklin Road
Johnson City, Tennessee 37604

September 15, 2016
9:00 am - 4:00 pm (Eastern)

REGISTRATION

FREE | $0.00/person

Seating is limited so register today!

Pre-registration is required for this event.

EVENTBRITE IS THE OFFICIAL
REGISTRATION SITE FOR THIS EVENT

<http://CultureHealthCompetency.eventbrite.com>

Pre-registration is required to guarantee your place at this event and to assist in adequately planning ample meals, refreshments, and seating. Registration includes access to all educational segments, refreshments and networking opportunities, lunch, and a certificate of continuing development reflecting contact hours earned.

Pre-registration is strongly encouraged as walk-in registrants will be accommodated on a "space available" basis and cannot be guaranteed access to any portion of the event and, thus, may be required to "stand by" until all pre-registered participants are accommodated before being allowed entry to the event if seating is available.

Substitutions are welcomed. Please contact Dr. Melissa Schrift (schrift@etsu.edu) at your earliest convenience with notice of cancellations or substitutions so that available seats may be reallocated to individuals on the stand-by list.

Substance Use Disorder in Central Appalachia: Challenges for Cultural

Competency | Robert P. Pack, PhD, MPH, Professor of Community & Behavioral Health; Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, College of Public Health; Director, Center for Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention & Treatment; and, Stephanie Mathis, MPH, DrPH, East TN State University, Johnson City, TN

Practicing Cultural Competency in Appalachian Mental Health | Susan E. Keefe,

PhD, Professor Emeritus of Anthropology, Appalachian State University, Boone, NC

Handle With Care: Creative Collaborations to Serve Children of Abuse and Trauma | Andrea Darr, Director, West Virginia Center for Children's Justice, Charleston, WV

Lunch Break [boxed lunch provided]

KEYNOTE

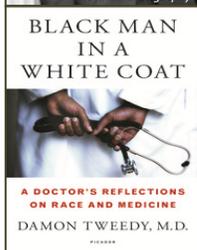

Black Man in a White Coat: Is There a Black Doctor in the House?

One doctor's passionate and profound memoir of his experience grappling with race, bias, and the unique health problems of black Americans

Damon Scott Tweedy, MD, Professor of Psychiatry, Duke University, Durham, NC

Dr. Tweedy has published articles about race and medicine in The Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) and The Annals of Internal Medicine. His columns and op-eds have appeared in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Chicago Tribune, and other print publications. His recently published book: Black Man in a White Coat: A Doctor's Reflections on Race and Medicine explores the intersection of race and medicine through the lens of his experience as a medical student, medical intern, and psychiatry resident. The book was a New York Times Bestseller and was selected by TIME magazine as one of the top ten nonfiction books of 2015.

ADA ACCOMMODATIONS

If you require ADA accommodations, please indicate your needs by marking your requirements during the Eventbrite registration process. ADA accommodations must be provided at least two weeks before the event date so that arrangements can be made.

Special dietary requirements can be accommodated with advanced notice. Please indicate your needs by marking the appropriate boxes during the Eventbrite registration process. Special meal requests cannot be guaranteed without advance notice.

HAVE A QUESTION OR NEED ASSISTANCE?

Contact:

Melissa Schrift, Ph.D. | Professor of Anthropology | Pre-Health Academic and Community Outreach Coordinator | Director, Culture and Health | East Tennessee State University, Department of Sociology and Anthropology | Johnson City, Tennessee | schrift@etsu.edu

EVENT SPONSORS AND PARTNERS

