From Crisis to Hope Best Practices of Crisis Response in Tennessee

June 28, 2016
One Century Plaza Conference Center
Nashville, Tennessee

Please share with crisis staff and others who you feel may benefit from this event.

Your responses to the recent conference planning survey were very much appreciated. We recognize that not all crisis response workers will be able to be on-site for the conference; so, we are researching and evaluating various mediums to accommodate the needs identified so that all crisis staff will have access to the conference whether in person or through other means.

The conference details will soon be available . . . in the mean time, mark your calendar to secure these dates and your availability for the conference and other potential conference accessibility options.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATIONS: The conference center does not have overnight accommodations. There are a few hotels in the vicinity of the conference center. The Embassy Suites Hotel, Nashville Airport is offering a special group rate of 154.00 USD plus applicable taxes per night – this rate expires May 28th.
